25X1X

1. The following resolutions have been made concerning the Chinese Communist attack on Taiwan, scheduled to begin in January 1952:
 - a. One million five hundred thousand troops are to be used.
 - b. The 3 Field Army is responsible for the initial assault, with the 4 Field Army as the second wave, and the 5 Field Army¹ will be in reserve.
 - c. Twenty submarines and about forty gunboats will be needed. Six hundred to fifteen hundred motor junks are being prepared.
 - d. Three to four hundred airplanes will be needed.
 - e. The main supply depot will be in Kwantung. The forward depot will be in Fukien. General headquarters will be at Amoy.
 - f. CH'EN I, T'ENG Hua, and HSIAO Ching-kuang² are responsible for planning.
 - g. The attack will require forty to fifty days.

25X1X [REDACTED] According to informant on the document he observed, items a and g were marked "proposed" (議) and items b, c, and e, "settled" (定). The latter items are apparently in hand and committed.

25X1A [REDACTED] Presumably the "5 Field Army" refers to the North China Army Group.

25X1A ~~3. Hsiao Ching-kuang~~ Hsiao Ching-kuang is a member of the Central and South China Military and Administrative Committee and commander of the Chinese Communist Navy.
